

am extremely concerned that consolidating the ownership of broadcasting stations will negatively impact the expression of alternate points of view essential for the health of our Democracy.

I believe that consolidation of ownership has gone too far already. Any more would represent a severe disservice to the health of our country.